

Management - Undergraduate Programs

OVERVIEW

Management focuses on general management, entrepreneurship, human resources and international management. Programs strive to provide students with the planning, problem-solving, critical thinking, and interpersonal skills needed to be successful in their roles as managers and leaders in business. The College of Business provides several options for individuals pursuing an undergraduate degree in Management.

The BBA in Management has three optional tracks: Human Resource Management, Entrepreneurship/Small Business, and International Management.

In addition to the BBA, the department also offers two undergraduate certificates: Certificate in Entrepreneurship and Certificate in Managing Diversity and Inclusion in Organizations.

Undergraduate Certificate in Entrepreneurship

The Certificate in Entrepreneurship provides students with skills and training in: identifying innovations and market opportunities, writing a business plan, obtaining funding, and launching a new company. The certificate enhances a student's general education, academic major and/or career preparation in innovation and entrepreneurship. All students will take a common course that will present the fundamentals of entrepreneurship. Two additional courses will be taken, based on the students' interests, drawn from a list of approved courses across academic disciplines. This certificate is designed for current UT Arlington students and can be earned as part of a degree program at both the undergraduate and graduate level. It can also be earned by non-degree seeking students as a stand-alone certificate.

The undergraduate certificate requires a total of nine semester credit hours of coursework, which can be completed in conjunction with an existing undergraduate degree in any field or independently as a special student.

Admission Requirements

- Undergraduate students in good standing (meeting a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0) at UT Arlington.
- Non-degree seeking (certificate only) students must have gained admission to UT Arlington as a non-degree/non-enrolled student.

Certificate Requirements

To receive the certificate, all courses must be completed at UT Arlington with a grade of B or higher.

Undergraduate Certificate in Managing Diversity and Inclusion in Organizations

The Managing Diversity and Inclusion in Organizations Undergraduate Certificate will provide students with an in-depth look at diversity in areas such as race, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, age, disability, and family status among individuals, organizations, and society from a business perspective. The certificate equips students with knowledge and skills related to developing and managing diverse applicants, employees, customers, and constituents. The certificate is established in response to a growing demand for awareness in all areas of diversity and its impact on individuals, organizations, and society. The certificate is available to business and non-business majors as well as non-degree seeking students as a stand-alone certificate.

Admission Requirements

- UT Arlington Degree-Seeking Students (any major): Applicants must be in good academic standing with a minimum of 2.00 cumulative GPA.
- Non-Degree Seeking Students: Applicants must have earned 60 semester hours of college-level academic credit and gained admission to UT Arlington as a non-degree-seeking student.

Certificate Requirements

The Managing Diversity and Inclusion in Organizations Certificate requires nine (9) credit hours, which can be completed in conjunction with an existing undergraduate degree in any field or independently by a non-degree seeking student. Students must complete the appropriate prerequisites before enrolling in program courses. All nine hours must be completed at UT Arlington with a 2.50 average GPA. A minimum of two B's and one C must be earned to reach the required 2.5 GPA in certificate coursework. A grade of D or F will not be accepted for any certificate courses.

All students will complete a common course that will present the foundation for the study of diversity in organizations, and two additional business electives based on their interest.
